IT PROVES A BOOMERANG.

THAT MYTHICAL DISPATCH FROM MR. BLAINE.

CAREFUL SEARCH SHOWS THAT NO DOCUMENT WAS ABSTRACTED FROM THE FILES-THE ADMINISTRATION'S CASE STILL FURTHER DAMAGED.

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

Washington, Dec. 16.-The intimation which has come from certain quarters where the Administration's Hawaiian policy still finds credit that a supposed important letter from Mr. Blaine to Minister Stevens is strangely missing from the State Department records has proved as serious a boomerang for the "cuckoo" party as Secretary Gresham's original "moral duty" programme of monarchical restoration. The utmost astonishment is expressed by those most familiar with the facts at the course of the State Department in permitting and, as is believed, encouraging the insinuation that a damaging letter from Mr. Blaine to Mr. Stevens had been abstracted from the files of the State Department. It is positively known to many persons, both inside and outside the Departnent, that the files of correspondence in the Hawaiian case prior to the incoming of this Administration are complete, and that fact cannot help being known to Mr. Gresham himself, who has had the files carefully searched. All correspondence in the State Department is numbered in consecutive order, and a careful examination of the files of the correspondence during the Harrison Administration discloses the fact that the numbers throughout run consecutively, and that no dispatch has been ab-This fact, it is asserted, has been reported to Mr. Gresham, and yet the insinua-tion goes forth that a letter by Mr. Blaine is missing. For some days the few Congressmen who are willing to defend the Administration on faith, and who, therefore, are more or less in the confidence of the State Department, have been insinuating to opponents of the Administraon faith, and who, therefore, are more or less in the confidence of the State Department, have been insinuating to opponents of the Administration that a letter from Mr. Stevens and one in response to it by Mr. Blaine would be disclosed, which would make it uncomfortable for the defenders of the Harrison Administration. The Stevens letter was finally published, and proved a blank cartridge, indeed, and then, apparently to cover its failure to do any damage, the malicious suggestion was started that its true import could be judged only in the light of the mythical reply from Mr. Blaine, as yet unhappily undiscovered.

A well-known public man, who during the last Administration was thoroughly familiar with the work of the State Department, is authority for the positive statement that no such reply as the apologists of the Gresham restoration policy fancy to be in existence ever was penned. This man stated to-day that he was with Mr. Blaine when the Stevens letter which was published yesterday was handed to him. He said that Mr. Blaine read the letter aloud and spoke of it as if he regarded it as of no great importance, believing that Mr. Stevens's apprehensions were not justified. The same authority stated that the only reply sent to the letter was a formal acknowledgment appears in the records of the correspondence of the State Department, and it is asserted positively that there is no break in the numerical order, all the correspondence being absolutely complete.

The motive and reason of Mr. Stevens's letter are disclosed in the letter itself. Mr. Bayard had given instructions to the American Minister at Honolulu not only to protect American citizens and their property, but to use the American forces to protect the approper of Mr. Stevens's letter is regarded generally as entirely antagonistic to the flag and the property of Mr. Stevens was to ascertain whether it was the desire of the Harrison Administration that these instructions should use the available American forces to protect the Queen, the question in land himself.

In connection with the subject of abstracting documents, it is said that the first private communication of correspondence to Congressmen made by the State Department did not include the statement made by Mr. Ashford concerning the private character of Liliuokalani. The later versions of the correspondence, however, do contain this.

NAVAL OFFICERS FEAR BLOODSHED. THEY THINK IT WOULD REQUIRE LITTLE TO

PRECIPITATE WAR IN HAWAII. Washington, Dec. 16.-Officials of the State De were much interested in the news ught from Honolulu by the steamer Australia, brought from Honolulu by the steamer Australia, but they had no comment to make. It is obvious, however, that the lessening chances of a conflict afford considerable relief to ardent supporters of the policy of restoration.

Naval officers, however, who have been in Honolulu and are acquainted with the spirit of the people there, are not as sanguine of continued peace. One of them said this morning that the intense feeling existing there among the supporters of the Provisional Government could not last much longer, and he heslieved that one little act of hostility—perhaps the firing of a pistol only—would kindle into flame the sentiment against the restoration policy and bring bloodshed in the islands.

The Profisional Government is taking measures against a surprise. We have the Executive building strongly parricaded, and will resist any attempt at restoration. This state of affairs has killed all business.

He has excuted a trust deed for the benefit of the Kameha-Behool of all his property in the island of Mojorai. This is about half the island and embraces 150 equare miles, or 96,000 acres of land. The land has seen newly stocked with cattle, sheep, horses and lil the accessories of a large stock ranch. In addition to this, Bishop has given $20,000 in cash for the erection of school buildings.

HE WILL ADVOCATE A REPUBLIC

MR. THURSTON TO URGE PRESIDENT DOLE TO ESTABLISH A PERMANENT GOVERNMENT. Oakland, Cal., Dec. 16.—"The Enquirer" this even

"Hawalian Minister Thurston sailed yesterday or the steamer Alameda for Honolulu for a more important purpose than to report 'no progress.' Last Thursday Mr. Thurston was a visitor in Oakland, spending the evening at the house of a man who has heavy interests in the Hawaiian Islands. There was assembled to meet him quite a company of unbosomed himself, speaking with perfect frankness about his mission in going home. thought that the time had come when he no longer cared to make a secret of it. To put it in the briefest form, Mr. Thurston is going to Honolulu to assist in another revolution. That is to say, he is going to aid in substituting for the present Pro visional or temporary government, a permanen government with a written Constitution, which shall make Hawaii a republic and a free and independent Nation of the earth. All idea of seeking annexation is to be abandoned for the present a least, and the Republic of Hawaii is to be established, thus ending the uncertainty in the islands. "The gist of the confidential information which Minister Thurston carries back to Honolulu, no doubt, is that nothing is to be expected from the Government at Washington, and that therefore the part of wisdom is for the Provisional Government to see its present strength and popularity and to establish a form of government which shall be permanent. This might not be so easy to do, if delay and uncertainty were allowed to go on until dissentions creep in and sap the strength of President Dole's Administration.

"In the conversation on the occasion referred to Mr. Thurston showed that his mind was made up for the boldest and most determined action. He implied that he was going, not to discuss matters, but to act. He seemed to entertain no doubt whatever that President Dole and the other members of the Provisional Government would be with him heart and soul. least, and the Republic of Hawaii is to be estab-

the Provisional Government would be with him heart and soul.
"As an illustration of his spirit Mr. Thurston said: I don't know but what it would be a good thing if there should be a little fight down there. It would unite the people. By this he was understood to mean collisions between the United States forces and the Provisional Government. He was asked if he thought the Royalists would come over and unite with the Provisionalists if the Government were made a permanency, and to this he replied: 'No, the Royalists must be stamped out.'
"As to the details of the new Constitution or how it would be promulgated, Mr. Thurston said nothing, but he admitted that the serious obstacle was the suffrage question, the natives being friendly to the Queen."

Washington, Dec. 16.-If Minister Thurston has gone to Honolulu, his family, which he left at th Legation, did not know it by word from him up to noon to-day. The press dispatches announcing that noon to-day. The press dispatches announcing that he had taken passage in the Alameda were the first intimation that he had gone, although the attaches of the Legation were prepared to expect an announcement of his departure.

Professor Alexander, the Surveyor-General of the islands, this afternoon telegraphed to Consul Wilder at San Francisco for definite information. When asked why it should be necessary for Mr. Thurston to leave the country, Professor Alexander said that by a personal interview he could convey a better idea of the condition of affairs here than by a written communication. Mr. Alexander also intimated that one of Mr. Thurston's chief objects is to advise the elimination of the word "Provisional" and urge the establishment of a permanent Government under the auspices of the people now in power.

WILLIS AND DOLE EXCHANGING NOTES NO TROOPS TO BE LANDED FROM AMERICAN WARSHIPS WITHOUT THE PROVISIONAL

GOVERNMENT'S WRITTEN CONSENT. Minister Willis, in which it was stated that th Provisional Government had received notice from Minister Thursten of Secretary Gresham's letter The Provisional Government wished to inquire, first if it was correct, and if so, intimated that it was due them to be informed what were the intention of the United States in relation to the recommenda tions of the Secretary of State.

On December 2 a reply was received by Presiden Dole, in which Minister Willis stated, in substance that he considered the letter of Secretary Greshan a domestic matter with which he (Willis) had nothing to do. It was his opinion, however, that nothing to do. It was his opinion, however, that President Cleveland would decide to furnish definite information and instructions as soon as he had received certain advices which had already been transmitted to him. It was Minister Willis's opinion that President Cleveland would be able to come to a conclusion, because he was anxious to have the Hawajian troubles speedily settled.

A previous note had also been received from Minister Willis, in which it is understood that he acoutersed in the notice served upon him that no quiesced in the notice served upon him that guiesced in the notice served upon him that no troops should be landed from the United States men-of-war without the written consent of the Provisional Government.

In an interview yesterday, Minister Damon declared he had no intention of resigning, "You can state positively that there is no dissension in the Cabinet," he said, "There was merely a difference of opinion in a matter of policy. That is now settled, and, if necessary, removals will be made in my department as elsewhere. I refused positively to resign when asked to do so by two persons.

When again asked if the Government would resist any internal or external attack, President Dole emphatically replied that it would. At the same time he hoped the matter had been already taken up by the United States 'ongress, and said he believed it would ultimately be settled there.

In the councils of last Thursday Minister Damon, in answer to a newspaper denial that the ex-Queen had asked the protection of the Provisional Government, said positively that she had, and that such protection continued to be given her by a guard frem the police department.

COMMISSIONER ANDREWS ACCUSED OF VIOLATING THE LAW.

SAID TO HAVE SHOWN FAVORITISM IN MAKING A CONTRACT FOR THE STREET CLEANING

Has Street Cleaning Commissioner Andrews violated the law in awarding his contracts for final disposition of street collections? A statement which was published yesterday charges him with so doing and with favoritism in awarding these contracts. The collections are sent by dumping scows to Riker's Island, or to sea. At Riker's Island they are used in filling in the cribwork which the Dock Department has built about the island. Mr. Andrews was accused of improperly favoring the successful bidder for the work, John D. Dailey, whose backer is Thomas J. Dunn, Tammany leader of the XXth Assembly District. There was, it is alleged, no public competition in bidding, but Mr. Andrews sent notices to thirteen contractors picked out by himself. The result was four bids. They out by himself. The result was four bids. They were made by Dailey, whose bid was lowest; Michael H. Whalen, Sanford Ross and Thomas E. Crimmins. The contractor must file a bond for $25,000. It is said that the specifications were so house of the Yonkers Lawn Tennis Club will be prepared that Mr. Dailey easily obtained the job. held on Tuesday evening, December 26. Between 400 and 500 invitations have been issued, and next he appropriation for 1894 for doing this work, as

The appropriation for 1834 for doing this work, as inserted by the Board of Estimate in the provisional budget for 1834, is $340,000. It is a sing sum to be disposed of without going through the form of public letting, as is required by law.

Mr. Andrews, replying yesterday to the charges against him, said that they were incorrect and misleading in several particulars, He explained, in part, as follows:

There are very few persons in the business of filling in, and a record of all such, so far as they are known, is kept in this office. The cribwork at Riker's Island being near completion, I desired to find some one who would unload scows at that point under the conditions most favorable to the city. For that purpose, a letter, stating those conditions and inviting a proposal, was sent to every person known to be, or to have been, in the business of unloading scows. The offers I received near the provisional service at the Central Methodist Episcopal Church this evening and listen to a special sermon by the Rev. S. Parkes Cadman. part, as follows:

There are very few persons in the business of filling in, and a record of all such, so far as they are known, is kept in this office. The cribwork at Riker's Island being near completion, I desired to find some one who would unload scows at that point under the conditions most favorable to the city. For that purpose, a letter, stating those conditions and inviting a proposal, was sent to every person known to be, or to have been, in the business of unloading scows, The offers I received ranged from 12 to 20 cents per cubic vard. That made by John D. Dailey, being the lowest bid, was accepted. Similar agreements have been made by the Department of Street Cleaning for many years past. If I find that the work can be more cheaply done under conditions as favorable to the city by any one else, or if Mr. Dailey falls or neglects to do the work as agreed, I have reserved the right to annul the agreement at any time.

The statement or implication that any political influence was brought to bear in the behalf of Mr. Dailey is absolutely false. The agreement was made with him because he was the lowest bidder. I do not know whether Mr. Dailey is a Democrat or a Republican. No one connected with Tammany Hall or any other political organization has ever spoken to me regarding Mr. Dailey's obtaining this work. Two of those who bid were personal friends of mine, and members of the Tammany Hall organization, and it would give me great piecasure to serve either of them. But, as Mr. Dailey was the lowest bidder, and is entirely responsible, the work was necessarily given to film.
